ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS.

HAVAS AGENCY

Cairo, 26th.

The Powers have agreed to a proportional tax on the Egyptian coupons, to improve the precarious state of the country's finances.

Calcutta, 26th.

Anglo-Indian army marching through Rangoon, and will hold itself in readiness to cross the frontier at a moment's notice, in the event of war being declared with Burmah.

Rio Janeiro, 27th.

Her Majesty the Empress had a severe fall yesterday, causing a fracture of the left arm. As no complications have occurred up to the present, the physicians think that her Majesty's health will be completely restored in a few days.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

London, 26th—The rumor is confirmed of the invasion of the Servians into Bulgarian territory.

General Roberts, Commander-in-chief of the Indian army, speaking last night at a banquet given in the Mansion House, pointed out the necessity of strengthening the frontiers and reinforcing the Indian troops, in view of the fresh phase of the Afghan arrangement.

London, 24th—The Marquis of Lorne, Conservative candidate for Hampstead, has been the object of a hostile demonstration. While speaking at Brentford, he was met with a storm of hisses and a shower of stones and eggs. He immediately took flight and caught the train for London.

Dublin, 26th—The Patriotic Union have issued a circular denouncing the National Land League as a disturbing element for the last five years in the domestic peace of the land.

Constantinople, 25th—The Anglo-Turkish arrangement, with regard to the affairs of Egypt, has been signed.

Paris, 26th—The Comptoir d'Escompte and the Varna Taviderbank have advanced 6,000,000 dollars to the Servian Government, having received a guarantee for the monopoly of the Servian tobacco.

The French Government have issued a decree prohibiting the consumption of English coal in the French navy, on the ground that in the event of any emergency the French would be left dependent on the English.

New York, 26th—The inscription for the coming elections has commenced. Mr. Grace has registered his name for the first time, and produced, on the occasion, his papers of naturalization, dated 1881.

New York. 24th—A petition has been filed for the resignation of Mr. Coon, Sub-Secretary of the Exchequer, and a Republican.

Savannah, 26th—Three policemen were killed to-day. It appears the police authorities had sent these men to capture the smugglers, who were lying in ambush, and fired at the unsuspecting men as they were passing.

Colon, 27th—On Friday the Comité General, in support of Dr. Dardo Rocha's candidature, will be definitely organized.

Montevideo, 24th — The Italian steamers Umberto. Diolibah and Napoli arrived from Europe, will undergo four days' quarantine.

The Nacion and the Razon are yet at loggerheads, to judge from the epithets freely used on both sides. The official papers have all approved of the circular published by Minister Carve in answer to the disclosures and imputations made by the ex-Secretary of Legation, Meliton Gonzalez.

Races are announced for December 8th.

An official organ ridicules Meliton Gonzalez, owing to the latter not understanding one word of English.

Seventy persons at the "barrido nocturno" have struck in consequence of not receiving their salaries.

Beyond the burning topic of the day, the port scandal, there is nothing new or interesting in political circles.

THE PENAL CODE.

In the debate in Congress on Dr. Tejedor's Penal Code, Mr. Deputy Solveyra made a most eloquent and luminous speech, which we translate and publish with much pleasure, in order to show our readers how well read and versed are many of our members of Congress, on even the most abstruse topics. The speech in question is too long for our columns, but we shall try to reduce it to two short chapters. What we could much desire is that Dr. Solveyra, and other members who have studied this Penal Code question, would introduce the summary jurisdiction of the Coroner in all murder cases, and also the trial of the accused by jury. These would, indeed, be radical reforms in our criminal jurisprudence, which sooner or later must come, and possibly no better opportunity could be offered than the present, when this new penal code is under revision. The following is the first portion of Dr. Solveyra's speech on the question :—

I have been named informing member by by my hon. colleagues on the committee. I regret that their choice should have fallen on me, for although I feel flattered and grateful for the honor, I should have wished the task to have been entrusted to anyone of the intelligent and experienced lawyers, whose names figure on the committee list. Their knowledge, seconded by experience, qualifies them to more competently, more brilliantly fulfil the task which has been confided to me.

To revise and reform the penal code in the short space of time allotted to the committees of Congress, is indeed an arduous and weighty task. And this is the principal reason that has persuaded the committee their work is far from being perfect. In the name of the committee I represent, I shall acquaint my hon. colleagues with the results of their tedious efforts, in order that Congress, availing itself of one of its highest attributes, may endow the Nation with a code, which will be gradually perfected, according as experience will point out its deficiencies and errors.

The sanctioning of a penal code, to quote the words of a well-known Italian writer, constitutes a memorable epoch in the annals of a Parliament; because it comes in aid of the existing laws and sustains the most important individual and social rights.

It is not sufficient, Mr. President, for a civil code to establish and subsequently strengthen laws for the guidance of men in regard to their reciprocal relations. It is not sufficient for it to establish the rights of property and the means to acquire such. It is necessary that the penal law should punish persons, who refuse to recognise or who violate such rights. The study of penal laws, for this very reason, is the one that affords the most interest and at the same the most instruction.

The penal laws are the reflection of the morality of a people. They are the direct expression of public conscience, the realization, in a word, of the idea of justice. In glancing over the pages of history, and examining the different stages through which civilization has passed in successive generations, we are led to the conclusion that penal laws are susceptible of the slightest movement in the progress of civilization. The most insignificant change in social customs, the most unimportant moral progress, have their immediate influence over the application of these laws, the punishment entailed by the breach thereof, and finally over the gravity of punishable acts. The penal laws cannot remain stationary; they constitute a public approval of social morality, and with the progress of social morals they must advance. The penal laws mark social progress and development, and point to the triumph of Justice over vengeance, right over force, civilization over barbarism.

This branch of human knowledge calls forth the attention of all minds, for it lies at the root of individual and social rights, of peace, order, and public conscience. And thus it is, Mr President, that the progress of society gradually condemns the punishments inflicted by an embryonic civilization, reposing on a wide basis of religious superstition and spurious philosophy. To-day the human mind, free from the fear of torture, can conquer all these great truths which constitute the glory and pride of modern times. This is one of the immediate results of our present stage of civilization.

Formerly a wide barrier separated the noble and the plebeian. The latter had no right to many of the commodities, necessities to-day of life; to kill a rabbit was a serious crime. And in spite of all this, Mr President, is it a true, an exact law that states 'pœna debet commensurari delicto'? When we see that a term of imprisonment for a rich man is distinctly different when the same term is imposed on a poor man, who has his wife and children to support, who earns his bread by the sweat of his brow; when we see that a fine imposed as a punishment for a rich man is distinctly different when imposed on a poor man, whose savings and earnings are thus sacrificed to justice; we are led to conclude that society must remain satisfied with these graphic formulas of human imperfection. Perhaps it is a consolation to know that in France and Germany, in most civilized countries, learned men are, by the combined effort of knowledge and experience, endeavoring to establish a just relation between a criminal act and the penalty entailed.

London
1 a.m. Sept. 24th.

As the mail for Buenos Ayres closes at 4 a.m. I have waited till the last moment to send you news, although events will have taken a decided turn long before this reaches you. Some of the Continental papers think we are now on the eve of that great European war, so long expected, but there are good reasons to hope the contrary. If we could only know what was the purport of Sir Drummond Wolff's mission to Constantinople, or what the 3 Emperors talked about at Kremsier, we should be in a fair position to understand the true state of affairs. Meantime Turkey makes no effort for the reconquest of Eastern Roumelia, and we are hourly expecting a revolution in Macedonia. It is feared that the Sultan may send troops against Prince Alexander, and that as soon as a shot be fired the Czar will be compelled to aid Bulgaria or to abdicate.

Two cabinet-councils were held yesterday, one at Paris which lasted 9 hours, the other at Constantinople 12 hours, but resulting in nothing. The Sultan sent 3 times to the British Embassy, to ask for advice and money, to which Sir William White replied that he had neither instructions nor funds, being only a temporary Minister till the arrival of Sir Edward Thornton. So impecunious was the Sublime Porte that the troops at Adrianople could not be moved, for want of outfit and waggons. Everybody, meantime, wants to know what P Bismarck thinks, but he keeps an attitude of observation. Another Berlin Congress is rumored, and in such an event the Paris papers say that France will not side this time with Great Britain, unless we consent to evacuate Egypt. French statesmen, however, will have to face a still more difficult question before long, in the re-adjustment of the finances of the republic. Even the proposed Income-tax will not preclude, but only defer, the necessity for a loan of 60 millions sterling.

Another batch of Australian loans is going through incubation, and some will be full fledged before Christmas. The Australian colonies are increasing their public debt 10 millions sterling per annum; which is even more than I predicted in my letter to the Times three years ago, although Sir Dillon Bell and his colleagues were so indignant at the time. They even declared that Australia was resolved to begin paying off public debt after the example of the United States. What incompetent men these Australian envoys are, when they could not see that the wants of colonists grow with population and trade.

Silver is at 47½ pence per oz., and Indian exchange has declined to 18½ pence: this is the lowest quotation on record, except in 1876, when the price was 46½ pence.

It is not easy here to get Irish newspapers, otherwise I should have tried to send you one containing an account of a banquet in Dublin given to Card. Moran before his departure for Australia, at which V. Rev. Dean Dillon made a speech on behalf of the Irish residents in the River Plate.

In my last I forgot to mention that among the persons at Aberdeen attending the session of the British Association, were Captain, Mrs. and Miss Thurburn, who have so many family ties at Buenos Ayres.

Among the passengers leaving per Maskelyne on 2nd prox. are Mr. and Mrs. William Samson, who will find ship, captain and crew all that can be desired. I believe Mr. Conyers Baker, of Entre Rios, will also leave by her, but I am not certain.

LATEST FROM CANADA.

The Havas telegram announces that the Canadian Government has decided Riel must be hanged. The following article from a late number of the Times will be read with interest, owing to the sad fate of this unfortunate man.

One question of large concern to the people of Canada just now is, What is going to be done with Louis Riel? He is lying in Regina gaol under sentence of death. He was the leader of the half-breeds in the North-West revolt; he was the organizer of the agitation. He had united the Metis, and persuaded them to enforce their claims and alleged rights against the Government of the Dominion. He had induced the Indians of the plains and the Indians of the woods to make common cause with the half-breeds. He had written letters, issued proclamations, and uttered harangues with the one object of inciting half-breeds and Indians to assert themselves and demand a speedy settlement of all matters in dispute between them and the Government. He was in the first fight of the rebellion at Duck Lake, as well as on the fiercely-contested fields at Fish Creek and Batoche; and, although there seems to be no doubt that the military leader of the Metis was Gabriel Dumont, a skilful, daring, and wily warrior, trained for a lifetime as Indian fighter, trapper, and buffalo hunter, there is as little doubt that the political leader and real chief was Louis Riel. He stood at the head of the revolt to the last, and when hopelessly defeated he did not escape across the international line as he might have done, but gave himself up to a scout, and was marched a prisoner into the camp of General Middleton. His removal to the capital of the North-West territories, his trial on a charge of treason-felony before a bench of two magistrates and a jury of six men, the verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy, the sentence to be hanged, and the appeal against the jurisdiction of the Court are matters as well known in England as they are in Canada. But there are many circumstances of the case which doubtless are not as well known in England as they are in Canada, and, in the not unlikely event of the appeal being carried to the Judical Committee of the Privy Council, there are a few points in the case and some links in the chain of events that have led up to it which English readers perhaps would like to know.

There is no question as to Louis Riel's part in the rebellion, but there is something to be said as to the origin of the unfortunate affair. One of the witnesses called for the defence was the Rev. Father Andre, Superior of the Oblate Fathers, in the district of Carlton. He has lived in that country for 20 years, he knows the character of the people, he has mixed with them, and it has been their habit to ask for his advice and aid in affairs of material as well as of spiritual concern. Before Riel came to the country in July of last year, having returned from Montana at the urgent solicitation of the Metis of the Saskatchewan, who wanted him as their leader to procure a settlement of their claims, Father Andre had assisted at public meetings held to consider the redress of grievances, and he testified that representations were made to the Government as to what took place at those meetings. He had himself communicated with the Government regarding the grievances of the people as long ago as 1882. He knew that petitions had been sent to the Government, and that Bishop Grandin was one among many who had urged that justice should be done. But he knew of only one answer which had come back to the people from the Government, and it was evasive. "They would take the petitions under consideration." That was the only answer received; and upon his oath Father Andre declared that the silence of the Government had caused great discontent among the people. But here the witness was stopped by counsel for the Crown. It was intended to show that armed rebellion was justifiable. It was virtually an attempt to place the Government on trial. And so it was not permitted to counsel for the man on trial for treasonfelony to show that there were circumstances which justified the coming of Louis Riel from his new home in American Montana to his old home in the Canadian North-West and might excuse or palliate the conduct of the Metis in taking up arms for defence of interests to which they made claim as rights.

The Maskelyne's Mails.

London, 2nd Oct.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30th.—The Novoe Vremya to-day publishes a telegram from Bokhara, of yesterday's date, stating that the survey of the projected railway between Merv and Tashkend has, with the co-operation of the Bokharan authorities, already been completed as far as Bokhara city, and is being continued without opposition; in fact, the Bokharan population is rendering every assistance in the construction of the lines.

Philadelphia, Sept. 30th—A military force of 1,400 men was under arms last night in Montreal with cavalry and infantry patrols. The troops dispersed the mobs and fully preserved public order. The whole of the French-Canadian population is reported to be disaffected, its sympathy with Riel aiding in fomenting this feeling, which is assuming the aspect of race antagonism.

Meanwhile, the number of deaths from smallpox increases. The deaths on Monday were 79, and on Tuesday 84.

The rioting on Monday night resulted in the wrecking of the Health Office, with several other buildings, involving a serious loss. The mob also emptied in the streets large amounts of sulphur, carbolic acid, and chloride of lime provided as disinfectants.

The troops yesterday took possession of the Exhibition buildings as a small-pox hospital. The only serious outbreak last night was the gathering of a mob to stone the nunnery of the Gray Sisters of Providence, who had been visiting the houses and reporting small-pox cases to the Board of Health. Quick action was taken by the police after the attack began. They captured the ring-leaders, and soon dispersed the crowd. Several persons were injured by stones and clubs, including the chief of police, who was seriously hurt. The leaders of the mobs are said to be Communists who have recently arrived from France.

Military patrols continue to be sent out to-day.

Chalbury Rectory, Wimborne, Dorset, Sept. 29.

This afternoon, at 5 o'clock precisely, we witnessed from this hill, of 360ft. altitude, a most perfect reflexion in the clouds of a ship in full sail. The Purbeck Hills, situate about 13 or 14 miles to our south-west, shut out our direct view of the sea in that direction, and in all our long experience of many beautiful views of the coast line we have never before observed this curious phenomenon. It lasted for about three minutes, and then slowly faded out of sight.

A report from Kildysart, county Clare, states that the system of boycotting Mrs. Morgan O'Connell, Ballylean-lodge, has been carried out since Monday with an astonishing result. Not a single trader in the town would supply her with the necessaries of life, and all her workmen yesterday left her employment. This caused her to write at once for emergency men, and the people were much surprised at seeing a band of seven of them marching up through the town protected by police, for the purpose of executing the work which the labourers of the district refused to do. The blacksmith would not shoe her horses. This system of boycotting it is said is owing to the seizure of her tenants' cattle for one year's rent because of their refusal to pay without being granted a reduction of 25 per cent.

A young gentleman named Patrick B Kavanagh, aged about 25 years, whose address is given as Jordan's-town-house, Paulstown, county Kilkenny, was arrested in having taken away Miss Wilson, the daughter of an English gentleman, who resides at Tunbridge-wells, Kent, without the consent of her parents, she being under age, and a ward of Chancery. The young lady is about 18 years of age. An elopement was arranged, as both parties despaired of obtaining the consent of the relatives, The young lady fled with her lover from her father's house, and the pair travelled together throughout Scotland. They then came to Dublin, where they stopped with a gentleman named Ellin, at Rathgar, and their names were entered in a marriage registry office, where they desired to be married. The father of the young lady, however, communicated with the Scotland-yard police authorities, and the fugitives were traced to the city of Dublin, where they were arrested.

Rustchuk, Sept. 30

I have had a conversation with a distinguished Bulgarian Prelate, one of the most intelligent men in Bulgaria. He said :—

"This has been purely the work of the people, and no Government or statesman had any hand in it. It is not palatable to Russia, which we regret, because we are truly grateful to Russia for what she has done for us. Let us hope that she will not prove resentful, and, above all, not avenge herself on our Prince, who has taken the heart of the Bulgarian people into his hand, where it rests in love and confidence. Besides, how deplorable would be the precedent which sanctioned the setting up of a new Prince over us, whenever our national action might not meet the unanimous approval of the Powers. We accepted the Prince that was given us. He has learned to understand us, and we have learned to love him. None has any right to take him from us.

"The Continental Powers have direct or indirect material interests in Bulgaria; England has only moral interests. In England we place our hopes that no injustice will be done in this matter."

The National Guard was despatched to the frontier this morning.

The Italians whom I have met today are not very well pleased with the step taken by Spain, and accepted by Germany, whereby the Pope is called upon to adjust the difference between those Powers. They regard this resolution of Prince Bismarck as calculated to prejudice Italy. It is evident, indeed, that the Prince cannot have overlooked the fact that the Quirinal faces the Vatican, and that the homage thus paid to Leo XIII. was a kind of disparagement inflicted on King Humbert. Italian imaginations cannot but be struck by the spectacle of the voluntary prisoner of the Vatican being applied by two great Powers to settle a question of national possessions which has excited both peoples. Italians will see in this a proof that, in the eyes even of its most potent and persistent adversary, the Papacy continues to be an institution essential to Europe, and they will also see in it an oblique condemnation of the Power which has done its utmost to destroy the material force of that Papacy.

For the last two days there have been rumours of conflicts between Turks and Arnauts in Old Servia, and a telegram from Cattaro in this evening's Neue Freie Presse reports that in an engagement with a band of insurgents at Djakovica the Turkish soldiers were repulsed with heavy loss. A second telegram, received too late for the evening edition of the newspaper, says:—

"The Miridites have risen and seized 200 horses with forage and ammunition, which were destined for the Turkish troops. Engagements continue along the frontier between Gusinje and Plavas."

An evening telegram from Belgrade says:—

"The war fever has become uncontrollable. The pupils of the high school and of the seminary, including several young men who were on the point of taking deacons' orders, have volunteered for active service, and the King has sanctioned the enrolment of all who are 18 years old. Lubibratich and the Pope Zarke, who were leaders in the insurrection of 1875-76, have arrived at Belgrade and are organizing a legion of foreign volunteers. They are offering bounties of 20f. All Turkish subjects living in Servia and of age to be enrolled have been ordered to join the army or to leave the country. The War Office is pushing on its preparations with the greatest activity. The day for the opening of the Skuhtschina is not yet fixed, but King Milan will open the session in person, and it is expected that he will on that occasion announce the forward movement of his troops. The concentration of troops at Nisch is being effected as fast possible."

From what precedes it is evident that King Milan has allowed himself to be carried along by popular clamour to a point whence it would be most difficult for him to go back, even if he desired to do so.

The King of Greece also, though less exitable than King Milan and less bound to act at the dictates of faction cries, seems unable to make head against the movement swelling in his kingdom, and it is not doubtful that if the Servians invade Macedonia the Greeks will do so too.

It must be remarked, however, that this prospect of aggressive action on the part of Servia and Greece is no longer regarded here as calculated to lead of necessity to a war with Turkey, for it is believed by many that the Porte would not move if Macedonia were invaded, but would take refuge behind the Powers in conference, and try to keep its last remnants of foothold in Europe, rather than risk losing everything in a war whence Europe would not, in any case, allow her to emerge victorious.

M. Bratiano, the Roumanian Prime Minister, returned to Bucharest this evening. The object of his visit to Vienna, as I am informed, was not to advance any fresh claims on the part of Roumania, but to represent to the Austrian Government the precarious position which must be that of Roumania henceforth, enclosed within strong Slav States.

Berlin, Sept. 30th.

The North German Gazette publishes an extract from a letter written by a trader at Philippopolis to a Berlin firm which throws light on the commercial aspects of the Roumelian revolution.

"No sooner," says the writer, "did the rising take place, than the bank at Philippopolis stopped its operations, and its example was imitated by the rest of the commercial community. For the Provisional Government, which had not been recognized by any one, offered no security for the stability of things, and for some time, therefore, all business came to a standstill. No payments weremade."

The writer requests his Berlin correspondent to send no more wares to Philippopolis until further notice.

Philippopolis, Sept. 29th

An order has been issued to the authorities of the towns that all men between the ages of 18 and 32 are to be enrolled as volunteers, and are to hold themselves ready for service if required.

A special corps of trained men has been formed for watching over the safety and order of the towns at night.

Prince Alexander has deputed M. Tchamakoff and Hodji Petroff to go to Constantinople to assure the Sultan that perfect peace and order prevail in the province.

Branches of the Red Cross Society have been established in all the principal towns.

The business of the Ottoman Bank continues to be carried on without interruption.

THE DANGERS OF THE STREETS

Scrambling along the Calle San Martin the other day, enjoying the sun for the first time outside my lodgings since breaking my leg, I was accosted by a man on crutches, with his head bound up in plaisters. "Gracious goodness!" he said, "can that be my old friend?" This meeting, indeed, makes amends for so many years of separation." And, after a hearty shaking of hands, he continued: "But what on earth is the matter with you, dear boy?"

"Fell down the other night into one of those yawning chasms for which Buenos Ayres is so justly celebrated, and only broke my leg. But you appear to be a little 'tied up' too."

"Nothing whatever, dear boy. Simply tripped over one of those patent raised tombstones, which decorate your streets here, dislocated my knee, put out my shoulder, and damaged my face a little—a mere trifle! Capital crutches these, and very cheap too."

"Yes," I replied. "We imported two hundred dozen some short time back, on a telegraphic order, and have only about 7 or 8 pairs left. Wonderful country! You can't stop it going ahead, even if its only on crutches."

"Excellent jibe; but mind where you're going, or you'll be into that drain."

"Navigation, certainly, is here a little difficult, like the China seas; but I suppose one gets used to it, as eels do to be skinned."

"Exactly; but what is that particolored paper on your forehead?"

"Well, to tell you the truth," he said, "I invested a few dollars the other day in the San Geromino Lottery, which excellent institution, I found out shortly afterwards, had no existence; but, always being of an economical turn of mind, I used the tickets to bolster up my physiognomy."

"Dear, practical old soul, always the same; but, look out, for Heaven's sake!"

At this moment we just managed to get into a barber's shop, or we should have been smashed to a certainty. A heavily-laden cart coming along the street (directed by a Neapolitan shoemaker), the leading horses leaving the shafts "in two" about half a square behind him, dashed upon the pavement, sent his nose through the "peluqueria's" window, and evidently mistaking some light-colored wigs for his favorite maize, proceeded to discuss them.

"Sagacious animal," exclaimed my companion. "Do you think that the driver will be able to extricate him?"

"Naturally—as soon as he has rolled up and lighted a cigarette."

"What patience and sangfroid! I suppose they think, and with justice, that to be too hasty over anything, causes a rush of blood to the head?"

"Exactly, you have just decided their character in a few words."

Thanking the barber for his hospitality, and sympathising with him on the window and wigs, we passed out into a "patio" and emerged into the street.

We here found the cartman cracking a few walnuts, in a friendly way, with a policeman, and discussing politics. "The old English saying is," my friend observed—"The man who never occupies himself with politics, is an eminently selfish being." The people here then must be a most unselfish race, as they never appear to think of anything else!"

"You are perfectly right; it is one of our staple commodities,"

"Hah! hah! and what are the others?"

"Well, loans, empty bottles, lottery tickets and potatoes."

"Wonderful country! Where the people can live upon so little!"

"Ah! but then you must remember our camps, the Bay of San Blas and Sommer's hats!"

"True," he said, "but shall we have a little lunch; we may as wel go in here." "With pleasure," I replied, "but pray look where you are stepping!"

A policeman at that moment was calmly eating an orange and depositing the peel on the pavement!

My friend had a narrow escape of falling, but we managed to get unscathed into the "restaurant."

Yours, &c.,

ARITHMETICAL PUZZLE.

B. Aires, Oct. 26.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Sir,

The wonderful arithmetical discovery of "A 47-year-old Scientific American," inserted in your edition of Sunday last, turns out to be merely an "identity," a veritable "mare's nest"; in fact, it only declares that any number remains unaltered when multiplied by 2 and the result divided by 2—astounding discovery!

In your evident weakness for surprising scientific calculations, notwithstanding a declared abhorrence of figures, it is a pity that the time of your subscribers should be wasted in reading such trash, when there is abundance of really rich material at command in scientific home papers and treatises.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
Doctor Zeb.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The French packet Niger sails today; we hope the weather will be more favorable for the passengers going off than it was yesterday for those coming ashore. Owing to the rise in the exchange market it is not probable that we shall have to publish anything more about the export of gold for a while. The French packet takes to London full powers and all the papers connected with the loan business. Dr. Garcia, Argentine Minister, is named with full powers to sign the General Bond.

We received yesterday from an Argentine friend in Glasgow The Evening Times and The Scotsman, with interesting articles for our readers here about the great question in the United States, concerning the eviction of the English Ranch and Cattle Companies from National territories. We have already published something on this question, which has much importance for the River Plate, since rich English capitalists will now have to come to the River Plate if they want to secure large tracts of camp.

The rain yesterday was worth millions to the camp, and will help the crops. The first sale of lino for the season was made yesterday at 70 cents, which is a splendid price. They are paying 12 nats. per square per annum for lino land for next year; a rich sheep-farmer, of Arrecifes, has just rented 500 squares at that rent, all for lino, and much good land in the Province of Santa Fé is being taken up also for lino at 2 nats. per annum per square, which is a better business for the land-owner than either cattle or sheep.

Mr. Nolte has presented us with a beautiful map of the province of Entre Rios, which now graces the walls of our printing office. We invite our friends who have properties in Entre Rios, to call and inspect this most excellent map, It can be had at Mr. Nolte's Libreria Alemana Calle Cangallo, price 5 Nats, which is very cheap; every estanciero in Entre Rios should secure a copy before the edition is all exhausted.

President Roca we hear will take a run out on Saturday to La Plata to visit the new city. Governor D'Amico will have a warm welcome for H. E., and show him over the place. The political wind seems to have changed to a new quarter since this trip of the President is announced.

Next Sunday Dr. Zeballos will be proclaimed candidate for Governor of Santa Fe, and all who take an interest in the progress of that province hope that he will be elected.

General Osborne, now relieved of his official duties as United States Minister, accompanied by Consul Baker and Mrs and Miss Baker, paid La Plata a first visit on Saturday last and remained until Monday. We emphasize the fact that it was their first visit, in order to state that they were so delighted with what they saw and so charmed with the reception accorded to them by the English-speaking community, that they have signified their intention of revisiting the new city at an early date. Their advent was so unexpected that no preparations were possible, but all their friends and acquaintances put their shoulders to the wheel at once and made the time pass as merrily as possible. On Sunday evening the General himself gave a dinner party at Bruny's Hotel, and among the guests invited were Mr, Mrs and Miss Baker, Mr and Mrs Davis, Mr and Mrs Frank Thicke, Mr Puleston, and others whose names we are not familiar with. A large party had previously procured carriages and inspected the city and the Port Works at Ensenada. In the evening an excursion in a tram-car was organized and the city was viewed by moonlight and electric light, and it must be confessed it was never seen to greater advantage. A reception at the residence of Mr Davis, where the genial ex-Minister was introduced to some of the belles of La Plata and listened to the sweet warbling of several English ladies, formed a charming finale to a memorable and most pleasant visit.

As we surmised in our report yesterday, the times for the races were all wrong. The following we guarantee to be correct, having been taken by one of our best sporting authorities. They are :—

1200	metres,	Rosina, 1m 17s
1750	„	Coronel, 1m 58½s
3500	„	Fidalgo, 4m 7s
1000	„	Rosina, 1m 5s
1750	„	Atrevido, 1m 59s
1750	„	Surplcie, 1m 59s

As will be seen by the above, Coronel (who, by the way, is the only genuine Irish thoroughbred in the country) beat Surplice in his time, and that too with the disadvantage of running in a field of 8, while Surplice had an open run. We believe Coronel will meet Surplice in La Plata on the 11th prox., where both of them will have more room, and the question whether Coronel would have won the Grand National had he not been cannoned, will be decided.

There was a heart-rending scene in Calle Buen Orden, corner of Pavon, on Monday, when a baby boy of 18 months fell from the footway under a tramcar and was cut clean in two. The mother, on hearing the child's last scream rushed out and fell unconscious in the street. The father was just returning from work, and became temporarily crazed from grief. The poor people are a young Spanish couple only two years married. The driver of the tram car was so stupefied with horror at the sight of the mutilated child's corpse that he could not speak for several minutes. The accident was in no way his fault.

By this time the fat must be in the fire in Eastern Europe. The Servians have invaded Bulgaria. Some of the big boys in Dame Europa's School must be playing a very double game. Lord Lorne's little unpleasantness at Brentford is rather funny. It was a most undignified thing for a Campbell to run away; but stones and bad eggs are ugly things to face. The question is, what was it all about?

The Mount papers are full of the splendid results given by Mr. Sapello's ostrich farm on that side of the river. It appears that the climate, or the feeding or something, makes the feathers superior to the best from the Cape. Mr. S. feeds his birds on maize, mashed thistles and alfalfa. We thought ostriches required stronger diet, such as nails, stones, old fire-grates, lamp-posts, etc.; but the ostrich, like most things and persons now-a-days is evidently degenerating.

A decree published yesterday prohibits any business being done in the Custom House with those "despachantes" who have ever been caught in a "faux pas" in the smuggling line. The thing is not to be caught.

Two veterans in the "Invalidos" had a difference on Monday and at once, as befitted, decided to appeal to "the last argument of Kings." There was not much choice of weapons at the moment, so one seized a rusty kitchen knife and the other a broomstick. The knife won, and the wielder of it then ran away, to escape the police. An "Invalido" that can run seems rather an anomaly.

Our charming colleague El Industrial evidently means to be hard on us because we cannot see the merits of Olavarria paving stones. Bad case; abuse plaintiff's attorney.

The ironclad Admiral Brown, got rid of a fair amount of public money on Friday and Saturday in torpedo experiments. There was a jollification on board for a lot of visitors. Visitors on a man-of-war while torpedo experiments are going on are rather out of place, and liable to be put considerably more so through an explosion, which is always possible in such experiments.

Major Gomensoro has arrived from the Chaco with 100 Indians. We thought this cruel and useless practice of dragging the poor savages to this city to pine and die as household slaves in hard-up families was to be abandoned.

It is with deep regret we announce the death of Mr James Doherty. He died yesterday at Mercedes. The funeral takes place to-morrow at Mercedes. All friends are invited to attend.

Hi! Hi!! Hi!!! Ha! Ha! Ha!!! Our young scientific American of 47 summers has set all Laputa in commotion. All the long ears are pricked, and all the "pondus iners" is in movement gravitating towards the centre of the puzzle! Both young and old puzzled their brains, and after a lengthy arithmetical incubation our youthful scientific American turns out to have played a very practical joke. Strange to say, simple as A. B. C., and origin of such mountainous parturition.

Messrs. Honoré and Bowen have defeated the Buenos Aires Government in the Supreme Federal Court, which has peremptorily ordered said Government to answer Messrs H & B's accusations in reference to the broken off contract for the Trenquelauquen and other railways, a splendid scheme that should have had fairer and better treatment.

The howling of a dog is considered the forerunner of death by many superstitiously inclined persons. Ancient writers believed the howling to be the sure harbinger of evil. Virgil says the battle of Pharsalia was preceded by the howling of dogs. All the dogs in the Province of Mysinia are said to have cried in chorus just before the overthrow of the Saxons in 1553.

The Staff, which is now completed, consists of the following; and, as will be seen by the qualifications appended is, perhaps the best working-staff to be found in any private school, Native or Foreign, in the Argentine Republic.

Master of Arts ("Honours" in Philosophy, Edinburgh University); Fellow of the Educational Institute of Scotland, First Prize Essayist (Educational Subjects) Edinburgh University, Session 1879-80; and, for more than eight years one of the Masters of George Watson' College, Edinburgh.

Congress has passed the Custom House Law for next year in a hand-gallop, although there are lots of reforms of all kinds badly needed. A deal more could be got out of the Custom House if dishonest employees were not allowed to play into the hands of smuggling firms, and if the latter were properly punished when caught. The modes of collection and various other screws are also extremely loose. Congress, however, does not seem to care a fig. All important measures are invariably left for the 'prorogа' and hurried through.

They are shearing like shoel all over Santa Fe now, and the news is that for wheat, wool and flax things never looked so grand before in that province. Meanwhile the Bears are stuck on 'Change and gold is going up like winking.

A 'galera' full of people, while going full gallop from La Plata to the neighbouring brick fields on Monday, went full split against a wire fence, and horses, riders, driver, passengers and coach went all of a heap, higgledy-piggledy, in one supreme smash. Not one escaped some kind of injury, but nobody was killed. So much for furious driving. Why camp "galeras" are always driven at such a furious pace is hard to understand.

Japan beats even the Argentine Republic in progress. Just read this:—"About twelve years ago the foreign exports of Japan were only $5,000,000, not more than one-seventh of what they are now. After twelve years of intercourse with the great leading trade countries of the world, the exports of Japan now amount to $38,000,000 annually, consisting chiefly of tea, silk, porcelain, lacquer ware and Japanese curiosities. Against this annual exportation there is an importation of $37,000,000 worth of goods every year."

Mr Carve has published a circular in answer to the cutting up he recently got from Mr Meliton Gonzales in reference to his way of managing the Montevidean port scheme and other matters involving the getting rid of the public money. We know nothing of the merits of the case. Mr Carve's view of it is most monstrously long.

Madame La France is fond of cutting off her pretty nose to spite her piquant face. She has now decided not to use in her navy any more of the "black diamonds" sold by her portly admirer 'ce gros Jean Boule," on the ground that he may be ungallant enough to again stop the supply (as he did in China) in case France again thinks proper to go to war for an idea. There is no war now, Madame, and you might as well use real diamonds when you can get them, instead of the rubbish that passes for coal "chez vous."

Lt. Colonel Host is the hardest-worked and most useful officer in the army, and deserves to be a General far more than many officers holding that rank. He is off again to the Chaco to make a road from Resistencia to Auta in the province of Salta. It will be 120 leagues long, and has to be cut through dense forests. Nevertheless, the gallant Colonel hopes to finish the road in six months. The War Minister has given him that queer corps the Marine Battalion, to see if he can knock anything either into it or out of it, which will be difficult.

Steel rails have to be laid on the prodigious inclines on the Central North Railway, as iron rails cannot stand it. There is one incline near Quillino 50 kilometres long. What rails or breaks could stand such railway engineering as this?

There is no foundation whatever for the renewed report that the Kosmos Club is about to give a grand ball. The Kosmoses are like the 10th Hussars, they "don't daunce," and we think they are right. We hear this new Club is getting on famously and is a very pleasant British social centre.

Some of our colleagues recommend a raid on the poor itinerant sellers of cent ices in the street, on the ground that the stuff is adulterated. This is not the fact. These ices are pure enough, and as harmless as any ice can be. Ice is unhealthy in any shape whatever. Look at the skins of our American cousins, who are perpetually getting outside of ice and iced water. We strongly recommend a raid on the makers of mock Martell brandy, mock beer, mock bitters, mock everything. Such customers and their "industrias del pais" give the undertakers far more jobs than the poor icemen do.

Rajneri is a greater favourite in Montevideo than here. At his benefit the other night in the Solis Theatre he was not only enveloped in presents, but all but smothered by them. The President of the Republic gave him a superb diamond ring; the Damas de Benifencia a gold crown, and so on.

Judge La Torre, of Santa Fé, goes to the Supreme Federal Court, vice Laspiur deceased. Capital man we hear.

For a wonder our most esteemed official medical colleague reports the public health to be much improved. We really think that hot weather agrees best with Buenos Ayres.

Barbosa, the homeopathte negro doctor, is by no means rich as we were led to believe the other day. He has only 9,500 nats. in the world, and the doctors of law and medicine won't leave him much of that when their fees are paid.

More useless public outlay. The latest news in military circles is than another expedition to the Andes, like under General Villegas, is to be organized. This looks suspiciously like as if the Indian is not quite wiped out yet.

Viva! Numerous city house proprietors have protested against the petition of the Olavarria quarr men to have a high duty put on foreign paving stones. Well done! The pretensions of these Olavarria men are simply outrageous.

We find we were under a slight misapprehension when referring to the lawsuit between the City of Buenos Aires and Anglo-Argentine Tramway Companies a few days ago, since we understand the latter company only claimed the jo nt use of the piece of line in question in Calle Balcarce; the Court has now given a final decision in their favor, with costs.

Important Notice.

I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406, where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.

This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.

I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.

The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:

For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.

Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.

Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

The bears entered the gold market this morning with strong reinforcements and thought at first that they would carry everything before them. It soon leaked out that they had secured a loan from one of the private banks, about one hundred thousand gold dollars, at $2½ difference up to the end of next month. This temporary respite was secured by taking the gold at 60 and selling it to the lender at 57½ for the end of next month—a very splendid business for the lender, but a rather questionable bargain for the borrower under the present changed circumstances of the market.

The prospects of the bearish speculation for the end of next month are no longer so bright, and there are rumors afloat, which if true, will place the bears in a serious predicament. It is whispered that nothing can be expected from the loan negotiation till December. The necessary documents, conferring full powers on Minister Garcia to sign the Bond in London, were forwarded to-day and will only arrive at their destination at the end of next month. There is also less talk of advances in anticipation of the conclusion of the loan negotiation. These are straws that show a change in the current of the market and deserve attention.

An extraordinary rumor is floated on 'Change, to the effect that the success of the loan negotiation depends to a great extent on the final settlement of the Misiones question with Brazil; it is furthermore stated that the modifications that the Argentine Congress has introduced into the "ad referendum" treaty between the Argentine Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Brazilian Minister Plenipotentiary will not be accepted by the Brazilian Government. It is, no doubt, a matter of great interest to the London bankers that countries owing so much money as Brazil and this Republic should be on the most friendly footing, but this intrusion of politics in connection with the pending Argentine loans looks preposterous. We give the rumor for what it is worth.

These reports necessarily affect the gold speculation and there is no denying that the prospects of November are no longer considered so favorable, although the bearish movement for next month continues strong. It may be that the bulls are appealing to sensational reports to influence the course of the speculation, and although, perhaps, not believed they still leave a detrimental effect behind. The slightest unfavorable insinuation affecting the loan touches the tenderest chord of the speculative body, and all the hopes of the bears are centred in the magic effect that the final success of the loan will no doubt produce, when the Bond is signed and gold travels to the National Treasury.

The heavy speculators for a fall were rather disappointed when they witnessed the insignificant effect of their attack this morning. They threw $100,000 cash at the ring, but the premium only fell 40 cents; the market opened at 46.10, fell to 45½, but closed hard at 45.70. Over $400,000 were sold for the end of the month; rates opened at 45½, rose to 45.80, and closed at the opening rate. Operations for the end of November embraced $130,000 at 43.80 to 43.40. Fifteen thousand were sold for the 20th Dec. at 43, and 30,000 for the end of December at 42.80 to 42½. Over $750,000 were sold during official hours.

There was a little more life in the Cedula market to-day, but not much to speak of. Prices are stationary and the demand is quite equal to the supply of the stock. Operations this morning embraced a few thousand Cedulas A at 100½, 30,000 E at 81½, 26,000 F at 80½, and 126,000 G at 85½-½. Nothing was reported in National Bank stock.

The exchange market continued steady, but few operations reported. The money market is easy; money is offered on 'Change at 7 o/o. Discounts show no change. Some of the banks have begun to lend gold, and if they continue doing so, there will be less pressure at the set lement; if not, gold will run short and the bulls will reap a harvest.

Cedula men began to shake to-day at the idea of the Government or the Legislature of B. Ayres supporting a bill to mortgage the lands for new colonies on fiscal estate. But this is a fleabite, when compared with the demands that will be felt when the new Boulevard begins to be opened. The market will then want nearly the whole alphabet.

Land brokers and others interested in the land business can no longer hide their indignation at the delays of the Bolsa Committee in purchasing and hanging on the walls in the hall maps of the provinces and National territories. The blazing frames and paint of the Madero port views have filled the cup to the brim, and land men are boiling over. Patience, gentlemen; monumental frames and splendid maps are being prepared, and they will probably be put up before Xmas or before the launching of the loan.

The fortnight has witnessed a steady revival in the produce markets. Hides and sheepskins have been dealt in largely; the arrivals of the latter for the last six weeks have been unusually large, a clear proof of the heavy mortality in the flocks during winter. About fifty thousand arrobes of wool entered the markets during the fortnight, but small parcels only have moved off. The French buyers are very cautious and hold back. In the midst of this apathy, wools are being sent to deposit, although consignees had hoped to get rid of their stock in view of the high premium on gold. Superior wools during the fortnight have fetched 100 to 105 $m/c per arr., good wools 90 to 95 m/c, middling 70 to 80 m/c, inferior 55 to 65 m/c. These are very low quotations, but they are nominal, as the market has not entered a steady phase yet.

7,000 q.q. of jerked beef of "buena gordura" and "gordura" quality, from the Garbino saladero, in Gualeguaychu, have been sold at 34 rls gold, placed in Fray Bentos.

6,500 qq. jerked beef of Habanera and Bonita quality, from the Magdalena saladero, have been sold at 23 rls gold. Seller, Mr Rocca. Both cargoes have been bought by Montevidean firms. Another important contract is talked of.

The following figures show the amounts of private deposits at fixed dates, for the third quarter of the year, in the

London and R. P. Bank. $m/n	3,477,134
Carabassa do.....	3,237,889
English River Plate do..	1,754.032

The Revenue Office collected a tax of one per mil on the above, say 11,449,90 m/n for the four banks.

Contracts for five cargoes of new linseed have been signed at 70 national cents per ar. The linseed for this contract to be supplied in this province and in Santa Fé. If the weather continues fine the Buenos Ayres and Santa Fé farmers will supply seed for two hundred cargoes. The impending heavy supply of linseed will open the eyes of people in Europe and will much affect prices in foreign markets.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

The failure of a well-known wool washing firm, having an establishment at the Tigre, is reported, and for a large amount; we hear one of the State Banks is in for 150,000 m/n. The failure of a party whose business is chiefly the fencing of lands, is also spoken of in the market.

To-day was the first really busy day for new wools in the market, much animation, large arrivals and numerous new buyers.

Mr Casey sold the following lots:—

600 ar. good wool	85
500 do	85
800 regu ar	75
900 do	73

Over 60,000 ar. wool now in the market, and great demand from outside for lienzos; we hear of one consignatario who has sent out 20,000 lienzos.

The large amount of cash gold sold at the ring this morning, was generally said to be the proceeds of large exchange transactions effected yesterday afternoon. Some exchange on Antwerp passed this morning at 4.04.

The German steamer Leipzig has been placed on the berth to load for Spanish ports. The freight fixed for dry hides is 20 $m/n per thousand kilos.

The R M S Mondego has brought out 30 fine rams and two horses, consigned to Messrs Bullrich & Co.

Government bills were done to-day at 9 o/o. There was a cold snap in the exchange market this afternoon and yesterday's spurt looked very much like a flash in the pan. The sudden rise of late may be traced to operations in connection with the gold ring. Rates which this morning were quoted at 5 frs., receded to 4.98 on Antwerp, 4.97 on France and in sterling to 47½d. The Provincial Bank entered the market and took fair amounts of exchange in francs and sterling. Credit paper was quoted this afternoon at 47½-¾.

A fine lot of 750 arrobes new wool from the estancia of Mr Michael Tyrrel, jr. was sold to-day in the Once at the splendid price of 4 $m/n per arrobe. This was the sale of the day. The quality of the wool was admired by all and reflects much credit on the Tyrrel estancia.

Arrivals at the South Plaza were larger than usual this morning. Business ruled flat.

The gold market ruled dull and weak during afterhours. The fact of the Provincial Bank entering the exchange market has upset the bulls, and a heavy supply of gold is anticipated to-morrow at the ring. The State Banks can control the market this month and the bulls know it. The premium closed this evening at 44.80 for the 30th and 42.80 for the end of November.

Mr G H Clausen, one of our leading exbarraqueros, was warmly welcomed on 'Change to-day and enveloped in friends, glad to see him back after an absence of three years. All agree that he looks at least ten years younger than when he left the country. Mr Clausen intends remaining a few months in the Plate, before returning to Bremen.

A full cargo of produce has been already engaged for the R.M.S. Mondego. This shows a decided spurt in the freight market.

No telegrams came up from Montevideo today, no doubt owing to the storm. The rain came down in buckets nearl all day, and attendance on 'Change during the afternoon was small. The hall was very dark, but the frames of the Madero port views appeared to gather fresh refulgence from the surrounding darkness and shone conspicuous when everything else looked hazy, shapeless and indefinite in the smoky and foggy atmosphere.

Some of our colleagues have gone astray in their statements of amounts of specie shipped to the Plate. Since, err they must, they are determined to err on a grand scale, and announce that £650,000 gold is coming, or has come up from Montevideo of late, to this market. Another startling item, is the announcement that not a pound of all the gold shipped from this market ever reached London. Our colleagues are sitting on the top of a rainbow, but one of them must have been sojourning in the moon when it defied anybody in the market to produce a single English paper announcing a single arrival of gold in London from this market. All this must have been written 'twixt sleeping and waking.'

At the Plaza Once the following business reported:—

155 waggons with produce arrived.

The arrivals were:—

1,500 @ of new wool
2,000 doz. sheepskins

Advices from Entre Rios state that cattle are fattening very slowly and that camps want more rain to come round. The slaughter season, it is feared, will begin much later than usual. Cattle in the Province of B. Ayres are looking very well and animals are fattening rapidly.

Real estate brokers state that good dwelling houses are very scarce and that the construction of the new Boulevard is expected to increase the demand. Several capitalists are building right and left in anticipation of the great demand. Some small houses in Almagro are being rented at 80 m/n per month. Four years ago any house in that district might have been had for one quarter that rent.

The knowing-ones, with pleces of money in both pockets, have been buying numerous properties in the squares between Victoria and Rivadavia. They expect to double their money; we think they will treble it, if the Boulevard is carried out. Property in the immediate vicinity of the Boulevard will go to the skies, but Calle Florida will suffer by the change.

We notice the arrival of the Garrick with a lot of Herefords for Mr. Arthur Yeomans. They consist of two heifers in calf and two bulls. These cattle, with a lot that came to hand last week, make a very pretty show at Messrs. Bullrich's, 73 Alsina. Estancieros would do well to see these cattle and purchase at the prices they are offered for.

Mr. M Trebino, the popular Coal-King, favors us with the following report on the coal market for the fortnight:—

Cardiff Coal—Prices have somewhat improved in view of the scanty arrivals and of the fact that the floating stock at present is held by one party. A small cargo, arrived, of 500 tons, was sold at 12 m/n in port The market closes firm for the moment, although heavy shipments are on the way out.

Glasgow Coal—The late frequent arrivals have increased the heavy stock, and prices are declining. Last sales were effected at 9⅞ to 10 m/n in the Riachuelo. The market closes weak.

Newcastle Coal—Although purveyors and consumers are well supplied, prices are maintained between 12 and 12½ m/n, in the Riachuelo.

Coke—Consumers are heavily supplied. Last parcels were moved off at 16 to 17 m/n, dispatched on board in Riachuelo.

Cadiz Salt—Three cargoes have been sold to arrive at reserved rates. Market closes firm.
